

EARLY CHILDHOOD TEACHER

CUESTA COLLEGE TEACHER PATHWAYS

THE PATHWAY TO EARLY CHILDHOOD TEACHER (Master Teacher Permit):

The Early Childhood Teacher Pathway prepares students to work in a pre-school learning environment with children from infancy to middle childhood. This Pathway will educate and train students to become effective teachers; provide hands on learning in the classroom; and support students to develop as teaching professionals.

WANT TO TEACH? HERE'S HOW:

OPTION 1

STEP 1 Be a current student at Cuesta College, or apply online at:
cuesta.edu/admissionsaid/apply

STEP 2 Earn Cuesta College's Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education (ECE)

STEP 3 Complete the field experience requirements by working in the ECE field to gain experience teaching infants, toddlers and preschoolers

OPTION 2

STEP 1 Be a current student at Cuesta College, or apply online at:
cuesta.edu/admissionsaid/apply

STEP 2 Earn Cuesta College's Associate Degree for Transfer in Early Childhood Education (ECE), plus ECE 245 (Adult Supervision) and six ECE specialization units

STEP 3 Transfer to a university to complete a Bachelor's Degree in ECE, Child Development or similar major

STEP 4 Complete the field experience requirements by working in the ECE field to gain experience teaching infants, toddlers and preschoolers

ABOUT TEACHER PATHWAYS:

Cuesta College's Teacher Pathways will help you attain your goal of becoming a teacher. Future Teacher Pathway students have access to dedicated Teacher Pathway Counselors and Success Coaches, a student club, funding sources and many other program activities to help you be successful.

For more information, visit our Teacher Pathways home page at bit.ly/cuestateacherpathways

Questions? Email us at futureteachers@cuesta.edu

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES
Teacher Preparation Programs
teacherprepprogram.org