

Course Student Learning Outcomes Report

POLS 202 GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS OF THE UNITED STATES

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Describe the structure and function of US governmental institutions and political processes (for example, elections.)
2. Identify who holds power in American politics.
3. Evaluate the extent of democratic participation in American politics.
4. Explain how self- and group-interests are pursued in American government and politics.
5. Evaluate contemporary political issues critically and objectively.
6. Explain the historical origins of contemporary governmental institutions and political issues.
7. Express the value of democratic citizenship.
8. Judge political issues based on evidence.