

Free Virtual Writer's Conference From Your Local Library!

Your Library is giving away a free registration to the Central Coast Writers Conference September 24-26, 2020 valued at $225.

Please write an essay with the theme, "How Writing Saved Me." In 1000 words or less, convince us with your heart and prose, why you should win this three-day conference.

Entrees will be judged on writing skills, compelling storytelling, and need.

Stories are due back to your library on September 15, 2020. Only one entry per person. Winner's will be announced on September 16, 2020.

Free entry includes all workshops, keynotes, and networking.

Please attach story to this form and make sure your name, email, and your phone number are printed on the top of every page of your entry.

More information at www.centralcoastwritersconference.com

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zipcode _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Library Submitted to _____

Please attach story to this form and make sure your name, email and phone is printed on the top of your story on every page.

Questions? Email CentralCoastWritersConference@gmail.com